Today as thousands of tourists stood at the edge of the falls an unidentified person conquered Niagara

For over one hundred years now Niagara has been a magnet for the picturesque gentry who live by gambling with death. The mere association of the word Niagara with any feat of success, warranted of success, picked honored. Some laid down their lives in the effort.

To the vistor, perhaps, the trick of going over the Falls in a barrel is the most widely known. No fewer than five people have made the trip, and the gamble has turned out to a two-to-three

WHILE THOUSANDS TERRIFIED WAIT

In 1859 Blondin stunned thousands of onlookers as he gracefully somersaulted at mid stream, walked with his feet laced to his feet, and walked on stilts.

One year later, in 1860, "the returned and actually cooked on a portable grill at mid-stream had a local sharpshooter shoot through his hat from the Mist 160 feet below.

Not content with this he for a volunteer to cross over Harry Colcord, Blondin's assistant who incidentally had little experience on the high wire, took a plunge and off they went.

Too much slack in the rope Blondin, and in-experienced ordered to dismount. Can his fear? The tense audience Colcord waited clutching Blondin.

Miraculously Colcord now rested Blondin and the safety.

Colcord in later life said into a cold sweat every back to those hour long spent on the high wire.

It is incredible for one what went on in the minds of women who defied fate challenge involved, and Imagine if you can, what Niagara Gorge 160 feet the roughest waters below.

Life we were given and precious we hold
We must strengthen that gift a hundred-fold—
Strengthen that gift that we may live
Fearlessly, surely, with something to give.
Eagerly groping for her task
These are the questions that youth must ask:

Show us a need we can fulfill
Show us a sorrow we may distill
Show us a weakness we can mend
Show us the cause we must defend!

Show us the meaning and all of life
Show us the way and point us a path
Show us the things that are worthy and true
Show us the things that we must do!

Now we see a world in sorrow
Bravely marching toward the morrow
Our young strength might strength renew
Deep in the heart of that long review
Marching, marching, into Time
Find us places in that line!

Let us join the measured beat
Which will take our eager feet
On the path where trials meet
Point out the foes we must defeat!

Life fill us with living; assign us our parts
Try out our courage and test our young hearts
Leave us not empty and fraught with despair
Give us our burdens, our travail to bear!

Questioning, querying, begging, beseeching
Into the future with eager hands reaching
Tell us oh life, what we can do.
These are the things we bring to you,

These are the gifts we have to bring
To humbly place as offering—
Arms that are strong and long to endure
Feet that are steady and light and sure
Ears that are tuned to life's voiceless cries
Eyes that scan keenly life's worried skies
Thoughts that are searching the mysterious blue
Straining and yearning for life's greatest truths
Love which compels us, holds us, and binds
Us to our country, our people, our kind.

Questioning, querying, begging, beseeching
Into the future our eager hands reaching
These are the things we bring to you
Tell us, oh Life, what can we do!
